

HOW MADE MY HAIR GROW

Woman With Marvelously Beautiful Hair Gives Simple Home Prescription Which She Used With Most Remarkable Results.

I was greatly troubled with dandruff and falling hair. I tried many advertised hair preparations and various prescriptions, but they all signally failed; many of them made my hair greasy so it was impossible to comb it or to put it properly. I think that many of the things I tried were positively injurious and from my own experience I cannot too strongly caution you against using preparations containing wood alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they injure the roots of the hair. After my long list of failures, I finally found a simple prescription which I can unhesitatingly state is beyond doubt the most wonderful thing for the hair I have ever seen. Many of my friends have also used it, and obtained wonderful effects therefrom. It not only is a powerful stimulant to the growth of the hair and for restoring gray hair to its natural color, but it is equally good for removing dandruff, giving the hair life and brilliancy, etc., and for the purpose of keeping the scalp in first-class condition. It also makes the hair easier to comb and arrange in nice form. I have a friend who used it two months and during that time it has not only stopped the falling of his hair, but it has wonderfully increased its growth, but it practically restored all of his hair to its natural color. You can obtain the ingredients for making this wonderful preparation from almost any druggist. The prescription is as follows: Bay rum, 6 ozs.; Menthol Crystals, 1/2 dram; Lavender de Compose, 5 ozs. If you like it perfumed add a few drops of To-Kalon Perfume, which mixes perfectly with the other ingredients. This, however, is not necessary. Apply night and morning; rub thoroughly into the scalp. MIDDLETON DIES.

In Spite of Frequent Blood Transfusions Millionaire Succumbs.

New York, July 31.—Five of the members of the wealthy Middleton family failed to save the life of Leighton Middleton, who died this afternoon. For ten days he had been at death's door with a plastic anema or poverty of blood, which frequent transfusions were unable to appease. His father, brother, wife, cousin and a college mate, all poured their blood into his veins within ten days.

Young Middleton was first stricken while on his wedding trip two months ago. His bride gave 15 per cent of her blood supply and his mother wanted to add a quantity of her blood to that already sacrificed, but physicians forbade it.

VETO PENCIL TO PLAY HOP SCOTCH

GOVERNOR EXPECTS TO PICK OUT PLACES IN THE MONEY BILL TO SWAT.

SOME QUESTION OF AUTHORITY

New Prison Probe is Ordered in the House on Suggestion of Reedy.

Austin, July 31.—When the appropriation bill reaches the governor's office for final approval a new system of vetoing will be attempted. This is the plan which it is understood Governor Colquitt will pursue in considering the appropriation measures. Entire sections when objections have been raised to certain items, have heretofore been vetoed in entirety and returned to the legislature for reconsideration. This year, the governor will approve certain sections with the exception of objectionable items, will approve the sections with the items shaved.

The plan is substantially this. He will make notations of his approval of an item of say $5,000 less $1,250, or a salary item of $1,250 will be approved less $250.

The right of such procedure has been questioned. Attorney General Looney stated that the plan would stand the test of the courts. Other lawyers in the legislature deny that this is the case. When questioned as to the plan of shaving the entire appropriation bill the governor stated that he did not care to discuss this question at all.

What A. and M. Has Had.

The governor also explained to a committee representing the farmers in session at College Station that in two years of his administration he has allowed A. and M. College $924,450, while in the eight years of the Campbell and Lamm administration that only $853,974 was given the college, and therefore he has in two years given it $70,476 more than was given it by two of his predecessors.

The senate spent the greater portion of the afternoon thrashing out the report of "lost convict" committee and reached no conclusion. Lieutenant Governor, Mayes and Secretary of State Weinert addressed the body and spoke in behalf of the committee's labor and the senate's approval of the report. The report suggests the pardon of more than 400 convicts. No decision was reached.

On the assumption that Governor Colquitt will submit the question, Alkison has drawn up a measure to make the Webb bill effective by preventing interstate shipments. His bill provides, among other things, that any man who ships into or carries in territory, interstate shipments of liquor shall be sent to the penitentiary for from one to three years; corporations may be fined $500 and express companies are liable for interstate shipments. The introduction of the bill depends entirely upon the rapidity of the legislature in handling the appropriation bill.

A new prison probe was practically ordered in the house after Representative Dan Reedy had spoken on a plea of personal privilege with regard to what he considered reflections on himself while he defended the prison commission. A committee of the house will hear alleged charges of irregularity in the prison management by Jeff Steele of Grayson county, a former employee of the commission. The committee of the house has not been chosen.

Representative Charles Mills of Corsicana definitely announced today his candidacy for governor.

IN THE SENATE.

Austin, July 31.—Immediately after the convening of the senate this morning a senate joint resolution was introduced by McNeel and seven other members of the body calling a constitutional convention to be held on the second Monday in April, 1915. Definite action was deferred.

The question of the printing of reports of the penitentiary investigating committee was again called up and the committee reported that two bids had been received, one from a Dallas and an Austin firm. The senate, after some debate with Senator McNeel, who was trying to swing the business to Dallas, awarded the contract to the Austin firm.

A committee of Astin and McGregg were delegated to visit the house and apprise its members of the awarding of the contract and to ask cooperation and an agreement as to the number desired. The house committee had not yet determined the matter, but went into session immediately.

IN THE HOUSE.

Austin, July 31.—The Mexican revolution was transplanted this morning into the house of representatives. During the course of debate on the Burgos Mexican resolution the house went into an uproar, the speaker was unable to keep order and so thick and fast did parliamentary questions and prebendal arise that the wily Kennedy, who was in the chair, acknowledged his inability to cope with the situation, and frankly asserted that he was "stumped."

Harris spoke on the resolution when it was first called up for about twenty minutes, the time allowed the consideration of resolution of the house, and then closed by ordering the previous question, which would have put the matter to a vote.

Long endeavored to get the minority report of the committee onto the floor for consideration, but was ruled off the floor on a point of order by Harris. Mills then broke into the debate on a question of parliamentary inquiry, but Wortham, who was in the chair, refused to recognize the member, possibly due to the uproar in the house that made it impossible to hear distinctly. Kennedy went into the chair, and the speaker then the fire-works started. For several minutes no one was aware what was happening, but the sergeant-at-arms finally secured order and the further consideration of the resolution was made possible.

After extended debate the minority adverse report of the committee on the Burgos resolution was adopted. A vote showed 57-57, but Speaker Terrell cast the deciding vote against the report.

The vote on the resolution was then called for and the final ballot showed 54 ayes and 62 noes and the Burgos resolution calling for the United States government through its present administration to make effective the declaration of the last national convention in favor of the protection of Americans in foreign countries was lost.

The house took up the senate bill by Hudspeeth, which attempted to dispose of the $500,000 oil penalty. After an amendment by Spann to add $200,000 to taking up A. and M. bonds had been offered, there came a substitute from Cope which would strike out the enacting clause and would kill the bill. The matter was held in abeyance until the afternoon. Meanwhile, the treasurer is holding $205,000 of the money subject to the legislature's action.

Early in the session two bills were introduced by Hill regulating the granting of permits to foreign corporations, and by Spann, Allison and Diffie—a court procedure measure to the effect that only material witnesses shall be called in felony cases, and endeavoring to straighten out and save the state from the tangle resulting by the act of the regular session paying witnesses $1.50 per day.

8 KILLED AT MOTORCROME

Out of Thirty-five Injured When Johnson Rides Into Electric Light Pole.

Cincinnati, July 31.—Out of thirty-five persons who suffered burns when the explosion of the gasoline tank in Odlin Johnson's motorcycle at the Lagooon, Ky., motordrome last night showed spectators with burning oil, eight have died up to 9 o'clock tonight. One other woman cannot recover, the attending physicians say, while seven others are not out of danger. Of the others 18 suffered more or less painful injuries.

The explosion occurred after Johnson had collided with an electric light pole and the racer himself was among the first victims. Statements from several of the eyewitnesses indicated that Johnson's daring attempt to pass a car in the Cleveland team was the primary cause of the accident.

Warrants were issued today by the coroner, which charged voluntary manslaughter, and were directed at the heads of the ambulance park in the city, given for the men's appearance in police court on Saturday.

Multitudes Who Are Becoming Interested in Vitalitas Assured on One Point.

Here is one thing that people of Texas and in fact people of everywhere who are becoming daily interested in Vitalitas may depend upon. When nature forced this remarkable substance to the surface at only one spot on the earth, she did not poison it with any injurious ingredient. She left it as chemically wholesome as the water of a mountain spring.

In extracting Vitalitas nothing is added to it or taken from it. It is perfect as it is. The public may therefore be absolutely assured that there is no alcohol, no opium, no caffeine, no cocaine, no morphine, no codine, no actin, in Vitalitas.

In fact, Vitalitas is free from any of the thousands of patent medicines on the market. The user gets it just as pure as if he dug the crude volcanic substance out of the earth himself and then carefully extracted in liquid form its medical properties and chemical forces with his own hands. Nothing else known in nature equals the curative and vitalizing effects on the human system of Vitalitas. Every drop of it is beneficial and disease banishing.

Those who suffer with indigestion, rheumatism, biliousness, nervous debility, or, in fact, any derangement of stomach, liver, kidney and blood, will find relief and cure in Vitalitas. As prepared in salve form it effects the cure of eczema, sores, piles and all skin disorders. Question the Vitalitas man today at the Powers-Kelly Drug Co. (Advertisement.)

MURDER IS UNSOLVED

POLICE AND DETECTIVES BAFLED—REFUSE TO MAKE STATEMENTS.

Jeff D. Robinson, Uncle of Murdered Girl, Arrives from Colorado. Burns Men in Texas.

Dallas, Texas, July 31.—Apparently baffled at their attempts to throw some light upon the tragedy which shocked the city of Dallas last Monday police and detectives today refused to make public any definite information regarding their latest series of investigations, and contented themselves with enigmatical statements to the effect that they hoped soon to make an arrest at a suburban place. The murder of Miss Florence Brown is still unsolved.

Interest today centered about the person of Jeff D. Robinson, uncle of Florence Brown and senior member of the firm in whose office the pretty little stenographer was butchered. Mr. Robinson, a suburban Dallas, was seen at the railroad station today. Anxious that he should not make any public statement before talking with the police, detectives attempted to book an arrest at a suburban place. The passenger train did not stop and they speeded back to meet him at the Texas & Pacific station. He was not seen by the officers at this point, however, and in an automobile went directly to the home of J. Randolph Brown, 2119 Cedar Springs.

Pathetic Scene at the Home. His meeting with Mrs. Brown, mother of the murdered girl, was pathetic. Chief of Detectives Henry Tanner and Chief of Police John Ryan immediately went to the Brown home and talked with Mr. Robinson. The result of their interview was not divulged.

Leaving the Brown residence, Jeff D. Robinson went directly to Sheriff Brandenburg's office. He was closeted with the sheriff and United States Marshal W. McDonald, for over an hour. Questioned in the court house corridor, Mr. Robinson broke down and cried. "I can make no statement at present," he declared.

"We have nothing new to report," said Chief of Police John Ryan. "We are still as far away from a solution of the crime as ever."

"I see no immediate prospect of making an arrest," says Chief of Detectives Henry Tanner. "We are working hard and hope to catch the murderer. We talked with Mr. Robinson Thursday morning, but secured no information from him which will prove of any value whatever."

About Burns' Services. The popular demand seems to be that expert detectives schooled in ferreting out crime should be brought to Dallas. Commissioner Blaylock is still in favor of securing the help of the private detective agency of M. J. Burns, $100 towards bringing William J. Burns to Dallas still holds good, and I will take the matter up with Mayor Holland as soon as he comes to the city hall from Denton county," he said.

Commissioner Nelms says that Burns are at present working at Angleton, Texas, on a murder mystery very similar to the Brown case. He is in favor of extending every aid possible to the local police.

Detectives declared that they have been much handicapped by false recollections of the case by the police. Chief Tanner says that most of the unfounded rumors have been started by thoughtless persons but is anxious that anyone having any definite facts in their possession should immediately turn them over to the police station.

Private Detectives Working. Many private detectives are now working on the case attracted by the large reward fund which is growing daily. Their efforts are appreciated by the police department whose sole idea is to run down the slayer of Miss Florence Brown without thought of compensation.

One matter reported which is being thoroughly probed by Sheriff Brandenburg is the statement that a young man shortly after 9 o'clock last Monday morning went to an Elm street clothing house and purchased a new shirt. His face was scratched and his shirt was torn and bloody. On being questioned by the clothing clerks he declared that he had been in a fight. He refused to make any further statement and left.

Killed in Race Fight. Steubenville, O., July 31.—Five workmen were killed last night in their camp near Fenwood during a quarrel among racial factions, according to a story reaching here to the sheriff's office here today. Several men were seriously stabbed.

THE STATE ASKS FOR VOUCHERS MADE OUT TO AN. PERSON.

SUPERINTENDENT ON STAND

State Given Time to Go Into Correspondence on Freight Rates.

Dallas, Texas, July 31.—In today's morning session of the Katy consolidation hearing in the Sixty-eighth district courtroom before Special Commissioner Thurmond Barrett, the state brought out the fact that prior to April, 1913, H. F. Anderson, general superintendent of the Katy of Texas, held the same position with the various lines named in the suit with the possible exception of the Wichita Falls & Wellington railroad; made his headquarters in Dallas and received one voucher each month in payment for his services. This voucher, Mr. Anderson believed, was issued by the treasurer of the Katy of Texas.

Assistant Attorney General Luther Nickels contends that if these railroads named in the suit are operated as different lines then each should have had a general superintendent residing in the city provided by the state law as its headquarters.

Since April, 1913, Mr. Anderson testified that he has held the office of general superintendent of the Katy of Texas. Mr. Nickels requested that he produce one of the cancelled vouchers issued in payment for his services. Mr. Anderson signified he would do. The hearing this morning was taken up mainly in the examination of officials of the Katy to prove the contention of the state that the various properties are operated under one common management. J. L. West, general freight agent, was called to the stand when the morning hearing began and his time was taken up in the identification of documents introduced by the state as evidence and dealing with the rates and freight arrangements between the various lines.

W. G. Crush Testifies. In his examination of W. G. Crush, general passenger and ticket agent, Mr. Nickels asked as to the manner in which passenger traffic was handled between the Katy of Texas and the Texas Central. Mr. Crush replied that the arrangement was the same as that with any other line, that the Katy made through rates to Texas Central points, but that the same custom was followed with other railroads. He testified that he had been in the employ of the Katy for twenty years; and as to rates applying from points in West Texas of the Wichita Falls route to Dallas, Mr. Crush was ordered to produce copies of tariff rates in effect as of August 1, 1908. These were produced later in the hearing and it is expected that Mr. Crush will be placed on the stand again.

N. L. Smitham, assistant superintendent of motive power of the Katy, testified that he reported to Mr. Kellogg, superintendent of motive power. The evidence brought out that prior to April, 1913, Mr. Kellogg resided at Parsons, Kan., but since that time has made his headquarters at Denton. Chief interest in the morning session centered in the evidence of General Superintendent H. F. Anderson, who as already stated, testified that from October, 1912, to April, 1913, he attended to the duties of general superintendent of the railroads named in the suit with the exception of the Wichita Falls & Wellington railroad; that he resided in Dallas during this period, although he spent a good deal of his time traveling; that he was placed in the position by General Manager W. A. Webb of the Katy, north of Red River and the Katy of Texas.

"Was it your understanding that these railroads were to be operated as independent lines?" asked Mr. Nickels.

"My supervision was exercised in that way and it was my understanding," answered Mr. Anderson.

Ownership of Stock. "Now, Mr. Anderson, haven't you heard at least a thousand times that the Katy of Kansas controlled the stock in all these Texas companies?"

"No, sir, I never did hear anything of the kind, nor do I remember ever reading such a statement in any newspaper. I have no understanding at all as to ownership of stock," answered Mr. Anderson.

W. M. Alexander, general claim agent of the Katy of Texas, was the next witness. He said he had held his position since November, 1911, and prior to that time worked for the Santa Fe; that his duties were those of attending to payment of claims arising from personal injuries, accidents, death of stock; that his authority in the payment of such claims was final up to $7,500; that above that sum the final authority rested in the president. He further testified that he conferred with the agents of the Texas Central in personal injuries, accidents, death of railroad; that his duties had nothing to do with the Beaumont and Great Northern, nor with claims originating on the Wichita Falls route.

"Now, Mr. Alexander, who handles the claims originating at Denton and from there to Red River?" was asked.

"I do. This comes under the jurisdiction of the Katy of Texas."

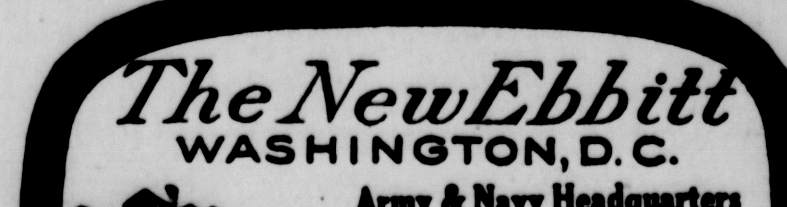

"To refresh your memory, I wish to direct your attention to an $5,500 personal injury case originating at Denton, which the Katy of Texas paid and was then reimbursed by the Katy north of Red River. Do you recall that case?"

"No, sir. I have no knowledge whatever of a settlement of that kind."

Mr. West Recalled. J. L. West was then recalled to the stand to testify as to a large amount of correspondence with the Southwestern Tariff committee. This correspondence had been asked for earlier in the hearing, and was produced by Mr. West. He had gone over the bulk of it and identified that with which he was familiar. Mr. Nickels asked for time to go over this correspondence so he could arrange it in a way that the hearing could be expedited. This was granted but preliminary to taking a recess until 1:30 p. m. Mr. Nickels introduced a report of joint conference meeting of cotton shippers, compress companies, ocean carriers and railroad companies interested in the movement of cotton to foreign points. This conference was held April, 1913, and the states of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana was represented. Attorney Alex C. Coke for the Katy objected to its introduction on the ground that it dealt with interstate ship-

TEMPLE STARTS RETRENCHING

Special Meeting of City Council Plans Economies to Relieve Present Embarrassment.

Temple, July 31.—A special meeting of the Temple city council was held this afternoon for the purpose of considering the overdrawn condition of the city funds, and to make some arrangements to relieve the embarrassing conditions that have arisen. A method was adopted by which the warrants issued by the city would be maintained at par, but the strictest economy will be practiced during the remainder of the year in order that the city's expenses may be brought within its income.

The funds are at present overdrawn to the extent of nearly $25,000, but a recent session of the council placed in effect economies and reforms that have resulted in a saving of $2500 per month. If this is maintained the city will be in first-class financial condition within the next ten months.

If you are the legal owner and holder of any note executed prior to July 14, 1905, secured by any character of lien upon real estate and which matured more than four years prior to July 1, 1913, you must under the Acts of the Thirty-third Texas Legislature bring suit within one year after July 1, 1913, to foreclose and collect the same, or extend the same as noted below, or the note will be barred by limitation on July 1, 1914, and rendered uncollectable by law.

If any note secured by any character of lien upon real estate is extended, the former method of extension by endorsement upon the note is now insufficient. The extension must be by written contract, signed and acknowledged as required by law for deeds, and placed of record; or the same will be within four years from maturity barred by limitation.

The above is merely a brief statement of the law which radically affects all lien-holders, who should promptly refer to their lawyers for further information.

The leading score was made by Miss Evelyn Friedman, her trophy being the always acceptable silk hose. This was the first appearance of Mrs. J. F. McGrath since her marriage. Other than these, Miss Foster entertained Misses Anne Risher, Lillian Westbrook of Laredo, Frances van Boddie, Edwina Sturgis, Pauline McLendon, Madeline Turner, Emily Westbrook of Laredo, Beuna Clinton, Sallie Thompson, Louise Baker.

MORNING HOUR SPENT WITH MRS. E. R. NASH

In calling together a congenial company for Thursday morning, Mrs. E. R. Nash, Jr., selected those who had been former friends of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Lang, of Dallas, and one or two girl friends in courtesy to the Misses Lang, who are also her guests. This was quite informal, as all summer affairs should be. Around the parlor there was chatting and stitching at intervals between the always enjoyed songs of Mrs. L. A. Brooks. The luncheon feature formed a salad center to summer bits of other good things. The guest list reads, other than honorees: Mesdames H. A. Smith, E. R. Nash, Leslie Gardner, J. D. Willis, Harry Lee Spencer, Clyde Webb, J. M. Higginbotham, L. A. Brooks, with the Misses Lillian Halbert, Frances van Boddie, Stella Lacy, Lydia Clinton.

MISS KATE EDMOND WRITES OF INTERESTING SIGHTS

In her month's outing in New York City, Miss Kate Edmond is having varied and interesting experiences. She is joined by Miss Rose Edmond from Woodstock, and under the espionage of relatives who live in New York City, enjoying the most from her trip. One of the privileges of which she is the first Wacoan to write is the study of the great J. Pierpont Morgan collections, now being shown to visitors from the Metropolitan Art museum and the History museum. The latter has the wonderful gem collection, while the former has the art. Miss Edmond is enjoying the city sights, and speaks as a social feature in her trip the hearing of the theatrical sensation just now, "Peg O' My Heart." Miss Edmond has met several of the former Wacoans; in all, she is enjoying her time, every moment of it. Her absence continues through August.

MISS GEORGIA STREETER IS BREAKFAST HOSTESS

The idea proved more than acceptable to nearly a half hundred from among the friends of Miss Georgia Streeter to take 5 o'clock breakfast out at Cameron park. It was even more acceptable, when these guests had been introduced to Miss Corinne Lockridge of Austin, who had the seat of honor. Dr. and Mrs. Maxwell, with Mrs. George D. Streeter were the chaperones, and the guests represented the college young men and women. Following the repast where all were just as hungry as fresh air and outdoor could prompt, the party went up to the Country club for an early morning dance. The decorative feature for the breakfast table was appropriately and quite prettily developed from the sun flowers in center and the sun bonnet babies outlined in all their graceful attitudes on the crepe cloth and napkins.

The following were present: Misses Corinne Lockridge of Austin, Boss Penning of Mexico, Catherine Lattimore, Frances Hays, Marie Beaumont, Margaret Blair, Stella Lacy, Mary Gallagher, Frances Van Boddie, Celia Moore, Mary Carter, Mary Shelton, Annie Risher, Maymie Caulfield, Ray Fraser, Marie Edmondson, Willie Lee Miles, Elanna Streeter.
Messrs. Will Dugger, John Gallagher, Bowden Hays, Billy Parsons, Jesse McLendon, Paul Higgins, Wilson Woods, Douglas Brown, Oscar Moore, Warwick

Jenkins, Hodges of Houston, James Caldwell, Woods Carrington, John Lattimore of Fort Worth, Edwin McKinney, Albert Lattimore, Bob Chambers, John Caulfield, Gardiner Gillespie, Leslie Shelton.

SISTERS COMPLIMENTED WITH FISH POND OUTING

There have been dinners and suppers and all sorts of social days at the Fish Pond this season, but not one where more genuine enjoyment was the result was that in which Mrs. P. Gorman and Miss Fannie Smith were joint hostesses in a Fish Pond outing. Their guests of honor were ten of the sisters from the Academy of the Sacred Heart. Allan McDonnell, with one car, Mrs. Peyton Ramey with a second, and Mrs. Gorman's third, made the procession of pleasure. Rowing while the lake was cool came as the morning's pastime. Nearer the dinner hour the shade of the trees found the group full of witty stories and gay chatter. Mrs. Missell of Arkansas, was one of the visitors. Everything which went to make the picnic dinner had been provided, and all the day was an ideal outing, and could but have been enjoyed by the sisters who are taking their vacation rest from a strenuous winter.

THE MERRY MATRONS MAKE POST CARD BUDGET

It was a happy thought upon the part of Mrs. E. H. Hardin as hostess in prospect of the Merry Matrons to provide a package of Waco post cards, in this idea was that, when assembled, the Matrons should remember their absent member who left under such distressing circumstances. This was Mrs. John D. Mayfield. The cards were distributed, each wrote her message thereon, and left with Mrs. Hardin, who is sending to Mrs. Mayfield in Rome. The Merry Matrons are supposed to spend their afternoon in small talk and fancy work. This, with the refreshment feature, was Mrs. Hardin's provision for pleasure. She utilized her porch for this agreeable hour. Mrs. Alex Johnson is hostess for the forthcoming week. It is then to be decided whether or not there shall be adjournment for several weeks. The afternoons have proved so pleasant for the Fifth street colony that some are in favor of no adjournment at all; others feel that the heat, so many absences and the coming Cotton Palace distraction is favorable to dissolution for the time being.

THE MARY WEST CHAPTER WITH MRS. R. S. LAZENBY

Notwithstanding such depletion in the ranks that the president and both vice presidents are out of the city, the Mary West chapter found thirty guests with Mrs. R. S. Lazenby, who entertained the chapter by special invitation. Mrs. W. W. Lastinger, a historian, presided, and had the satisfaction of announcing every single one who had been spoken to give the program for the historical session. The state historian prepares no programs for the two midsummer months. This gave for the Mary West chapter which does not adjourn, opportunity for original contributions of song and music. One or two surprises features gave zest to the enjoyment. These were a cute little doll motion song from Baby Louise Lastinger by special request, and an advanced piano number as substitute for the announced piano selection from Miss Virginia Lazenby. One noteworthy feature was the presence of several out of town guests. Mrs. Lazenby had her electric fans all in motion, thus bringing her rooms to comfortable temperature. For the refreshment feature a cooling cup of sparkling Huaco and a sandwich tray were offered on the veranda. Mrs. J. W. Downs, as chairman, gave outline of what the chapter would do for the Cotton Palace. She announced the several committees for this work. Mrs. R. J. Alexander kept the minutes. It was agreed that hereafter the children would be enlisted as a program feature. This will cause their attendance and attract their interest to the Confederate cause. The Mesdames J. S. Barnett and E. A. McKenney gave voice numbers. Miss Mildred Lastinger gave violin solo, and Mrs. J. I. Gates a piano selection. The chapter as a whole joined both in the literary discussion and in the singing of America. In all, the session was quite a diversion from a melting July afternoon.

Society Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Seley were a party for Wootan Wells on Wednesday.

Cards from Rev. and Mrs. Knickerbocker report their trip through the Yellowstone and the Pacific Slope now ended. They are resting under agreeable conditions of visiting with a brother in Los Angeles. Their homecoming occurs before middle August.

Today is the welcome to August, the month of cool nights and intimations of summer's farewell. Does not that sound good?

The N. S. Alexander party reports delightful camp life on the Concho. Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Wilkes are leaving within the next few days for a tour of the eastern cities. This is primarily a travel education tour for the Misses Adrienne and Annetta Wilkes.

Mrs. J. G. Ferrell and Miss Viola Barton are sending their first cards home. They are located in Toronto, delightfully situated both as regards comfort and weather. The absence continues until early October. A personal letter from Miss Lucile Mayfield left her in Rome so far convalescent as to have had a little walk around the grounds of the hospital where she has been detained.

Master Edward Rotan felt so important in his Wednesday pie, in that he was able to offer a slice made from fresh blueberries sent by the grandfather from the Massachusetts garden.

It is said of the quaint little town of Oberammergau that its streets all lead to nowhere, so intricate their course. That applies to the Waco streets just now, in this period of building. Really you start not knowing where you will end, in all this barricading for skyscrapers and paving.

It is held that, for the bungalow, only the cretonne is acceptable for the simpler drapery.

Have you secured those Cotton Palace cards and mailed to your friends? It is your duty to do so right away. If you intend to freshen your bedroom windows this season, bear in mind that the tones of the yellow rose blend beautifully with mahogany furniture.

The up to now sofa pillow has simple slip embroidered with the family initial. This is something to remember when we begin to plan holiday gifts. And, remember, to give to the woman who does not embroider. It is the loss of half the pleasure to present our gifts without discretion.

What does a woman care for embroidery who sits at her embroidery frame half her time? And yet, how a woman who never does this appreciates having the piece!

Mrs. Pearl Walker Yates and Miss Margaret Yates are now in Colorado Springs. They are enjoying the mountain scene to the limit. One of their last experiences is at storm one moment, sunshine excursion the next, and a downpour of rain later. Such is the glory of uncertainty. Mrs. Yates, Miss Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Geyer and Miss Huff formed a party for the magnificent High Dive drive through North Chisos Canyon.

Somewhat, the little folks do not seem to be having their rights as regards vacation parties. Very few have been reported.

Morning bridge is all right; but morning bridge when the beds are all "made is all wrong."

The Mesdames Lovell Williams and W. J. Lincoln are entertaining for Mrs. Harry Lyle of New Orleans this morning. Bridge is the diversion.

Today notes the departure from Arizona of Mrs. Sterling Robertson, Jr. She spends a few days with Mrs. Sterling Robertson in San Antonio, and then takes passage for a visit here with her mother, Mrs. T. A. Blair, and her old home friends. This will be the first visit of Mrs. Robertson since the morning she took her departure as a bride.

Parents will note that the public school begins this season with the fifteenth of September. Many will return home accordingly.

Do not complain all the time. You can not regulate the world and all that is in it to suit your taste and comfort. Complaining about what does not suit you remedies matters not in the least.

The Mary West chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, are the first to make definite action towards Cotton Palace exhibit.

Many friends have expressed in person and over the telephone their thought for the great grief with Judge and Mrs. G. B. Gerald.

Congratulations upon her late August marriage have been freely given Miss Katherine Hooks since her announcement on Wednesday.

The H. H. Shear house party arrived at home from Galveston with Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lessing are at home from their bridal trip to Ingleside. They are in the Lessing cottage on Provident Heights.

UPRISINGS IN VENEZUELA.

Start Simultaneously Under Leadership of Former President Castro.

Willemstad, Curacao, July 31.—Reports received here from revolutionary sources in Venezuela are to the effect that the uprising in that republic started simultaneously last Monday in several states and that Gen. Cipriano Castro, former president of Venezuela, is the leader.

The advice says that General Leon Jurado, governor of the state of Falcon, who previously was reported to have been captured, escaped when the rebels attacked Coro and fled, but that the military authorities in Coro were imprisoned.

From the state of Falcon, according to reports, it is the purpose of the revolutionists to invade the state of Lara, which adjoins Falcon on the south, and General Navas is expected to operate in the state of Zulia in the northeast of the republic, adjoining the United States of Colombia.

Gen. Carmelo Castro, brother of Cipriano Castro, is in command of the rebel troops in the state Tacharia, just south of the state of Zulia.

It is stated that prior to the revolt the revolutionists seized the cable and telegraph lines.

Many Government Officers Quit the Service at Washington.

Washington, July 31.—This was quitting day for several government officials.

nolds administrations. C. Carroll Todd of New York is his successor.

James F. Curtis of Boston stepped out of the treasury department as assistant secretary in charge of the customs after nearly a four-year term. Charles Sumner Hamlin, of Boston succeeded Mr. Curtis.

Frank Cole of New York resigned as private secretary to Attorney General McReynolds.

Besides leading on a candidate for mayor the committee, the compromise republicans, progressives and independent democrats, is to pick candidates for controller, district attorney and various municipal offices and adopt a platform. The balloting was in progress at a late hour. The mayoralty candidates considered besides Mr. Mitchell, were District Attorney Whitman and George McAneny, president of Manhattan borough.

THINKS WILL PARTICIPATE

President of Panama-Pacific Exposition Optimistic Concerning England's Stand.

San Francisco, July 31.—Charles C. Moore, president of the Panama-Pacific international exposition, takes an optimistic view of the report that Great Britain will not participate in the 1915 fair. To his mind the matter is far from being settled definitely. He said tonight:

"We have had communications indicating that Great Britain desires to be satisfied as to certain circumstances before she accepts, but none that is to be considered as a final declaration of our president's invitation. Diplomatic objections must not be taken too seriously.

"We feel confident that a satisfactory adjustment of the point in question will be reached, that Great Britain will be added to the 27 nations whose participation already is assured, and that the British division of exhibits here in 1915 will be the largest British manufacturers have ever assembled in a foreign exposition."

TO STANDARDIZE TARE.

Committee of Cotton Men Meet at Washington—Will Eliminate Evils.

Washington, July 31.—Those appointed at the annual meeting of the association of southern agricultural workers at Raleigh, N. C., in November last, to formulate a plan for bringing about a conference of representatives of the various organized cotton interests of the world, met here today. The object of the proposed conference is to devise some methods by which the tare on American cotton may be standardized with a view to eliminating those evils growing out of present tare practices. The committee is composed of Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia; Smith of South Carolina; Postmaster General Burleson; former Representative W. G. Branley of Georgia and representatives of the department of agriculture and commerce.

Plan Attack on Nuevo Laredo.

Washington, July 31.—Rumors current in Northern Mexico today, transmitted to Washington tonight, were that a revolutionary attack on Nuevo Laredo, headquarters of General Joaquin Tellez, is planned. The forces of Venustiano Carranza are being massed, it is said, and operations are to be directed from the city of Hidalgo. The state department was informed today of the establishment of the federal military division of Northern Mexico, with general Tellez as commander-in-chief. Mexican government forces are to be concentrated at Nuevo Laredo within the coming week.

Americans in Coco, state of San Luis Potosi, are said to be endangered by lawless conditions and it is believed the organization of vigilantes will be required to insure their protection. Madero is said to have joined the Carranza forces at Hermosillo.

Consul Lospinasse reported from Frontera, Tabasco, today that the bandits in that section had been dispersed and danger to Americans lessened. Consequently, the gunboat Wheeling went to Puerto Cortez, reporting today that everything was quiet there, as well as in Campeche and Progreso.

REVIVAL AT ROGERS.

Baptist Meeting Conducted by Judge Thompson.

Temple, July 31.—Judge M. J. Thompson of Stephenville began a revival meeting at Rogers last night at the Baptist church which drew a record-breaking congregation for the first service, it being estimated that fully 1200 people attended the first meeting.

Million Dollar Fire.

Allentown, Pa., Aug. 1.—Fire which broke out shortly before midnight in the plant of the S. Flory Manufacturing company at Bangor, Pa., destroyed property valued at almost $1,000,000 and still was burning fiercely at 1:25 o'clock this morning. Besides the Flory manufacturing plant, the Flory Milling company's plant, a furniture store and four residences have been destroyed.

Wants Big Volunteer Army.

San Francisco, July 31.—A big volunteer army to back up the regulars, and the training of every enlisted man in a trade, which will make him a useful citizen when his enlistment expires, were among the plans outlined by Secretary of War Garrison, speaking here today at a luncheon given in his honor by the chamber of commerce. Secretary Garrison and his party left tonight for Portland.

MME. NAZIMOVA TO MAKE LONG TOUR OF WORLD WITH EIGHT PLAYS.

MME. ALLA NAZIMOVA

That Mme. Alla Nazimova is to take a trip around the world at the head of a theatrical company is the word sent out from the office of Mr. Charles Frohman, her manager. The company is to have a repertoire of eight plays.

Sydney, Australia, is to see the first performance of the new company. Melbourne will be the next stopping place. The company will then go to China and Japan, although it may not play in either country; then to South Africa and thence to Europe, where it will play in England, Germany, France and Italy. It is said the English language will be used throughout the tour, although it is Mme. Nazimova's wish to play her roles in French, German and Italian when in those countries. The tour is to end in January, 1915. After that Mme. Nazimova will return to New York.

RIFLES SHIPPED TO MEXICO

Steamer Leaves New York with 105 Cases of Guns and 625 of Cartridges.

New York, July 31.—On the manifest of the steamship Mexico of the Ward line, which sailed today for Vera Cruz, were 105 cases of rifles and 625 cases of cartridges, consigned to the military governor of the state of Vera Cruz.

It was explained at the offices of the firm that shipped the ammunition that they had a permit from Washington to make the shipment.

"The rifles and cartridges were shipped as such," said a member of the firm, "and we had a regular permit from the president to make the shipment. We sent a very large consignment of rifles and cartridges about two weeks ago under a similar permit. All our shipments have been for account of the present Mexican government."

FINISH LUMBER HEARINGS.

Counsel Will Consider the Record in Washington August 10.

Chicago, July 31.—Hearings in the government suit against the alleged "lumber trust" were completed today. Counsel for both sides will consider the record in Washington August 10, after which it will be submitted to the United States district court in Minneapolis.

JEWELERS TO SETTLE.

National Association to Begin Negotiations with U. S. Attorneys.

Washington, July 31.—The National association of wholesale jewelers soon will begin negotiations with the United States attorney's office at New York for a friendly settlement of the question whether the association is violating the Sherman anti-trust law. The question involved is whether the organization exerts a restraint upon the free dealing of manufacturer-jewelers with retailers by restricting sales through wholesalers or jobbers. This same principle is involved in the "lumber trust" suits.

Before any action is taken the question will be submitted to Attorney General McReynolds.

Aviator Dashes to Beach.

Asbury Park, N. J., July 31.—To avoid moving down spectators who had rushed upon the sands where he was about to alight here tonight, after a flight from New York, George M. Dyott, an English aviator, elevated the nose of his monoplane sharply and saw his machine headed for a telegraph pole. To escape collision he pointed the monoplane downward and, skimming over the crowd, struck the beach with such force that the machine turned a somersault. Dyott escaped injury.

Dyott left Hempstead, L. I., this morning for Washington. Early this evening he resumed his flight.

Three Killed in Collision.

Duluth, July 31.—Three laborers were killed and two fatally injured in a collision of an ore train and the Great Northern railroad docks at Aloues, Wis., tonight.

The dead were foremen. A mistake in switching is said to have been the cause of the accident.

Olmstead Transferred.

Washington, July 31.—Victor H. Olmstead, chief of the department of agriculture's bureau of statistics, recently suspended on charge of inefficient administration, was transferred today to a field agency in accordance with Secretary Houston's plan for reorganization of that office, and four minor clerks were suspended pending transfer or removal.

Quinlan Sentenced.

Paterson, N. J., July 31.—Patrick Quinlan, Industrial Workers of the World leader, was sentenced to serve a year in the county jail for saying last Saturday night at a socialist meeting: "Elect a socialist mayor and then you won't have cops like Bummy Ryan bating you over the head with a club."

He will appeal today's decision.

Stop Indian Dances.
Net Lake, Minn., July 31.—The grand lodge medicine dance of the Chippewa Indians at the Bois Fort reservation and Net Lake agency, has been put under the ban by a federal inspector. It is the custom of the Indians during the dance to give away practically everything they own. They are thus kept impoverished while the medicine men flourish.

Strike Not Settled.

Charleston, W. Va., July 31.—Because of the presence of a small party of men not in accord with the proposed settlement of the strike on Cabin creek, agreed on a few days ago by miners, officials and coal operators, a vote was not taken at a mass meeting attended by several thousand miners at Decoto late today. Several locals promptly have agreed to the terms. A ratification of the agreement, it is said, means the end of the long drawn out industrial trouble in West Virginia.

Smith County Bonds.

Austin, July 31.—The attorney general's department today approved bonds of Smith county road district No. 1, $75,000, 40-108 5 per cent.

Reform Goup at Mexico City.

Mexico City, July 31.—The initiative has been taken by new members of the chamber of deputies who belong to what is known as the reform group in the chamber to bring together the rebels and the government in a peace agreement. These deputies have signed a proposition, which if the support of a sufficient number of others of their group is gained for it, will result in a commission calling on President Huerta and placing the proposition before him.

The deputies say they have been moved to this step by an apprehension of foreign interference in the republic and the consequent necessity for all Mexicans to unite against it.

It is suggested by the deputies that committee of rebels, if President Huerta sanctions their plan, that the chief executive will do this is regarded as doubtful.

Daniels Gets Threats.

Helena, Mont., July 31.—Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels has received a number of threatening letters from members of the Industrial Workers of the World as a result of his patriotic utterances and the riots which occurred during his recent visit to Seattle.

Mr. Daniels told Governor Stewart, who accompanied the secretary from Deer Lodge, of the threatening, but said he had no fear of harm coming to him.

The secretary's aide, however, is apprehensive that some of the threats may be executed and is taking precautions to safeguard Mr. Daniels.

Millionaire Morris Sick.

Chicago, July 31.—Edward Morris, millionaire packer and head of Morris & Co., is seriously sick. He is constantly under the care of physicians who have kept secret the fact of his illness several months. One of his friends said he was afflicted with serious nervous trouble brought on by strain attending the trial of the packers nearly two years ago.

Garibaldi to Ecuador.

Relief at Cleveland.

Peruvian Team Arrives.

New York, July 31.—Nine members of the Peruvian rifle team which will enter the international contest at Camp Perry, Ohio, next month arrived here today.

Postmasters Elect Officers.

Denver, July 31.—Officers were elected today by the Association of Postmasters of the first class and Dallas, Texas, chosen as the place of the next meeting.

D. T. Garrow, Jacksonville, Fla., was chosen president. Resolutions urging installment of one-cent letter postage and a differentiation between postage rates on advertising and reading matter in magazines and periodicals were adopted.

HERBERT JOHNS

ALICE CRISPELL

William Crispell, father of Alice Crispell, who was mysteriously drowned in Harvey's Lake on the night of July 4, has received a postal card from New Rochelle, N. Y., bearing a message which may clear up the murder for which Herbert Johns, sweetheart of the girl, was freed.

The postal card reads:—"Bert is innocent. I killed Alice because of her love for Johns.—A. N."

The father in the girl went at once to the office of District Attorney Bigelow, and detectives are at work on the new clue.

HOLDING REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Rev. Goodwin at Durango and Evangelist Ham at Lott.

Lott, July 31.—Rev. Ben Goodwin, the Baptist missionary for Falls county, is conducting a very successful revival at the town of Durango, about eight miles from Lott, Texas. The meeting has not been running very long, but there have been a number of conversions. He holds a meeting in the forenoon and at night.

The Rev. Baumgartner, a Presbyterian divine who is now conducting services daily and nightly, as an advance courier preparatory for the advent of Evangelist Ham, who will be here next Tuesday to take charge of the union meeting, is doing some telling talking to his nightly hearers in a hammer and tongs fashion and from the interest being shown at present, great results are confidently expected as the meeting progresses.

Durango has recently organized a brass band with twenty pieces. They have new instruments and are making rapid progress under the successful direction of Lem Landrum. This band is now playing some fifty selections that would be a credit to almost any musical aggregation.

John Hensley, who is in the employ of the Chilton Hardware and Furniture company, is in Durango this week visiting the family of J. F. Holin and attending the Durango revival.

The immediate country in and around Lott, Texas, is fast becoming very dry and dusty, and water is becoming scarce, especially stock water.

REFUSES SUPPORT TO FREE SUGAR

THORNTON OF LOUISIANA REPU-
DIATES PLANK IN THE TARIFF BILL.

GRONNA ASSAILS MEASURE

Republican Senator Speaks From the Standpoint of Farmer—Speeches
Take Up Entire Time.

Washington, July 31.—Democrats of the senate who stand pledged to vote for the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill, listened today to one of their number who has repudiated the administration measure because of the free sugar plank. Senator Thornton of Louisiana in a vehement speech, pictured the ruin that free sugar would bring to his state, denounced the policy of free sugar as undemocratic, and characterized his party's action as a "pity" and a shame.

"I am not false to the principles of the democratic party," said the Louisiana senator, "in refusing to follow it along the strange and devious pathway it is now pursuing with regard to the tariff on sugar. I am true to those principles, and it is the democratic party itself that is seeking to depart from them. I am no traitor to the democratic party, but loyalty to my state forbids me to vote for this bill in its present form."

The attack from within the party ranks, the first that has been made since general debate began, was followed by another from the republican side, when Senator Gronna of North Dakota assailed the measure from the standpoint of the farmer.

Nearly the entire time for discussion of the bill was taken up with these addresses and little progress was made in consideration of the schedule. The double attack did not serve to sway the democrats from the determination not to take up time in general debate. The democratic leaders still assert that they will content themselves with brief opposition to amendments as they are offered from day to day.

Shively Will Answer.
Later Senator Shively of Indiana plans to answer the arguments and criticisms of the minority.

Appeals of the manufacturers for an understanding between the senate and house as to the date when the rates on woolen manufactures are to be made effective have failed to bear fruit.

Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, announced when republicans read petitions asking that something be done that he would confer with majority leader Underwood of the house, with a view to bringing about an agreement. This he has done, the result being that the house intends to stand firmly behind the provision that free raw wool and the rates on woolens shall become operative immediately upon the passage of the bill.

The senate bill proposes that raw wool shall be free on December 1, 1913, and that the reduced rates on woolens shall become operative January 1, 1914.

Characterizing the Democratic tariff bill as "neither fish, fowl nor herring," a measure not framed on scientific principles of either free trade or protection, and that it will not benefit the consumer because it will injure if not destroy the producer, Senator Gronna, progressive republican of North Dakota, attacked the measure in the tariff discussion in the senate today.

"The great industry of agriculture," he said, "is again the subject of an unjust discrimination. I call attention to the fact that in my state alone where in 1912 we raised more than 143,000,000 bushels of wheat, with short crops in foreign countries, under the provisions of this bill our farmers would lose in a single year more than $157,000,000."

Senator Gronna declared that in discriminating against the farmers the democrats found themselves in the difficult position of having two sets of reasons inconsistent with each other, "using the one or the other as the occasion might seem to demand and now they are attempting to use both at the same time."

"If the removal of the tariff on farm products is going to give the consumer cheaper foods," he declared, "then the tariff on those products gives the producer a better market and the producer is benefited by it. On the other hand, if, as has been contended, the tariff on farm products is of no benefit to the producer of them, it can only be because the tariff does not increase the price of those products, and if it does not increase the price, then where is there any excuse for stating that the removal of the tariff is going to benefit the consumer and give cheaper food?"

Marlin, July 31.—A wedding of interest was solemnized Wednesday evening at the First Methodist church, when Miss Nannie Lou Betts was given in marriage to Rev. J. D. F. Houck of Calvert. Just preceding the arrival of the wedding party, Mrs. J. W. Hillen sang very sweetly, "O, Perfect Love," after which Mrs. F. M. Burkhead commenced the wedding march from "Lohengrin," which brought the bridal party to the altar, where the Revs. I. F. Betts, R. A. Burroughs of Waco and J. W. Bergin performed the ceremony.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, where many friends gathered to wish her the happiness and pleasure which she so richly deserves on her journey through life.

The groom is the pastor of the Methodist church at Calvert, where he will take his bride when they have returned from a wedding trip to San Antonio and Corpus Christi.

Police See Hand of Experienced Crook in Robbery—Discarded Valuable Jewels.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., July 31.—The jewels stolen from the summer home of Charles Cary Rumsey and John J. Hanan are being sought in New York, Boston and other cities where big transactions in precious stones are not uncommon.

Although the police throughout the country have been asked to watch the pawnshops, the detectives are satisfied the work is that of an expert gang. An automobile seen on Ocean Road Sunday night is the most important clue, and after learning all he could about this car, one of the detectives engaged by Mrs. Hanan left for New York today.

"The detectives," said Mrs. Hanan, "are as much of a puzzle to me as the whereabouts of my jewels. The first word I have had from the detectives was the assurance from the operative today that he had learned something very important and was going to New York at once."

When the detectives began work on the Hanan case they declared it was "an inside job."

But a day later, when the Rumsey cottage was entered, they modified their views and thought they saw the hand of the experienced thief.

Mrs. Hanan has refused to entertain a suspicion against the twenty-two servants in her employ, but today she admitted it was possible some of the servants had made acquaintances who thoughtlessly gave information that later was turned to account.

Mrs. Hanan said tonight that the thieves discarded a magnificent string of India pearls that could not have been disposed of without attracting attention and quite likely suspicion.

Houston, July 31.—Rain today prevented the last game of the series between Waco and Houston. The Navigators will play in Galveston tomorrow and Dallas will come to Houston for a series in which there will be two double headers. The Buffs have reserve pitchers in readiness to meet the strain of the extra games.

Dallas 9, Galveston 1.
Galveston July 31.—Ponder came back strong in today's game, holding the Pirates to two hits. Dallas won by a score of 9 to 1. The Pirates were unable to get a runner past second until the eighth inning. Roark, a recruit twirler, opened the game for the Pirates, lasting two-thirds of an inning. Sewell, who succeeded Roark, did little better. Dallas secured enough runs in the first inning to tuck the game away. Duncan and Tullos secured seven of the Giants' twelve hits.

Denver Tourists Are on Texas Soil

Amarillo, July 31.—The Waco motorcyclists reached here last night after making 155 miles during the day. They were delayed about four hours on account of Lempeke and his motorcycle getting lost in a desert. Lempeke got behind the rest of the party, lost the road and his companions had to go in search of him, finding him several miles out in the sand. The roads were bad today and fast time was impossible. The party reported that they made 151 miles in four hours yesterday. They will cross Red River tomorrow on the railroad bridge and may make it to Waco by Sunday night. Their motorcycles show signs of hard usage, but the motors are still in the frames.

Motorcyclists here have followed with interest the trip of the Waco boys to Denver and back. They left here three weeks ago, taking thirteen days on the journey out. At the present rate they are going, they will make the return trip in almost half that time.

Motorcycle Puts A Pitcher to Bed

Cincinnati, July 31.—"Rube" Benton, pitcher for the Cincinnati National league team, is slowly recovering from injuries he sustained early Wednesday morning when his motorcycle collided head-on with a street car.

At the hospital today it was said that he would not be able to leave for more than a month, and that he would not be able to participate in any more games this season, even though he recovered in time.

Boehling Loses His Game Before a Home Audience

JOE BOEHLING.

Joe Boehling, the new southpaw wonder of the Senators of Washington, had won eleven straight games up to Thursday, July 24, thereby breaking the pitching record of the two big leagues for this season, and incidentally showing that Clark Griffith, the manager of the team, came near making one of the mistakes of his career. Griffith announced some weeks ago that there were no more good southpaws, and all the time he had one of the best in his possession.

He got Boehling two years ago and then let him go—with strings on—to the New England league. Hoping the young man might develop, he got him back this season, but kept him on the bench. Finally Griffith was induced to give the boy a chance, and he made good. He even equalled the season's record of the wonderful Walter Johnson, who is doubtless the best pitcher in baseball. Had Griffith started to pitch the young man some weeks ahead of the time he did start, the club might now be higher in the league table and might be considered a contender for the pennant in the league.

The First Slot Machine.

Hero of Alexandria (about 125 B. C.) was an ingenious inventor of mechanical toys. In his works, "Pneumatics" and "Automata," he describes some hundred small machines that he probably never carried beyond the "model" stage. These included a steam engine, which is said to be of the form now known as every's patent, and a double forcing pump to be used as a fire engine.

Hero was also the inventor of the automatic delivery, or penny-in-the-slot machine. He describes "a sacrificial vessel which flows only when money is introduced." When the coin is dropped through the slit it falls on one end of a balanced horizontal lever, which, being depressed, opens a valve suspended from a chain at the other end, and the water begins to flow. When the lever has been depressed to a certain angle the coin falls off, and the valve, being weighted, returns to its seat and cuts off the supply. The mechanism is practically identical with the present system, and the ancient invention is, if anything, more ingeniously simple than the modern.

The Huaco golf course is being "tramped" to such an extent that some of those who have been making the round in fifty say they will do well now to make it in ten more. George Rotan went out and looked it over the other day and decided that he would give the visitors in August something by which to remember their sojourn here. He got a dozen mule teams and scrapers and went to work. Wherever there was a chance of falling to a green without going into the creek or the ditches or out into a field of beautiful tall weeds, he put his gang to work trapping the greens with bunkers. A bunker is a plot with malice aforethought, against the player who cannot control his strokes; as the Huaco course has been "improved" if you make a 200-yard drive you have to lay in a twenty-foot space, or go into a bunker, with the prospect of making your next shot out of a two-foot hole with a three-foot dirt ramp-pole on the edge of it. There are one or two holes which have not been tampered with. They are to be left in their present state, which means that the golfer can shut his eyes, hope for the best, and smite the ball; if it doesn't sail into the high grass on one side or a field on the other, or fall short into the ditches or run too far into the creek—then he will have good chances for making another shot under the same conditions.

Jordan Wins Wrestling Title From Yokel

"Chris" Jordan, of Cleveland, won the middle weight wrestling title of the world by defeating "Mike" Yokel, of Salt Lake, former champion, in their match at Salt Lake City.

Yokel secured the first fall in three minutes and forty-five seconds. The two then roughed each other for an hour and thirty-three minutes without a fall. Yokel was thrown from the mat heavily several times and after a hard tumble was exhausted and refused to come back again. The match was then awarded to Jordan.

KATY EMPLOYEES VOICING DEMAND FOR SERVICE TO RAIL TERMINALS

Loss of $20,000 Is Sustained Monthly by Waco Merchants Because of No Convenient Method of Transportation—Katy's Position—Waco Men Talk.

Personally interested in the extension of street car service to Belmead, several hundred employees of the Katy are now standing behind the scheme, and many have pledged themselves to assist the members of the Chamber of Commerce committee in its effort to secure service.

Supt. A. A. Matthews, with headquarters here, is strongly in favor of extending the lines. He long ago recognized the need for transportation to and from the shops that the Katy itself could not give by shuttle car on account of steam line traffic.

The business men, too, are awake to the need for a car line to Belmead. It is roughly estimated that Waco loses more than $20,000 each month on account of its absence. The people can not purchase their goods here because there is no convenient way to get to the city.

Much interest has followed the agitation for transportation facilities to Belmead terminal, and the publication yesterday in the Morning News brought attention to the situation. Some time ago a request was made that the Katy operate a shuttle car between Belmead and Waco every hour for the convenience of the several hundred people who are employed there, and who live there, and who desire to do their trading and visiting in Waco. Superintendent Matthews said at the time that the company would be glad to do this, but it was impossible because of the many trains that must necessarily pass every time between Belmead and Waco. Some time ago the suggestion was made to General Manager Stichter of the Southern Traction company that the line going to the East Side be extended to accommodate the Belmead traffic, and he said that he would consider. Whether his engineers have made a report on it or not is not known.

The population of Belmead is growing every day. There are many employed in the work, many of these have families, and there will be others. The terminal vicinity is being rapidly settled with homes and with churches, and all of those people want some method of transportation between Waco and the place where they live and where they work.

A large number of those working at the terminal live in the city proper and they are urging that some arrangement be given them transportation be made. Layton C. Puckett said yesterday:

"I don't think Waco can do a better work for the town and the people who have come here to live than to urge some means of transportation. The street car service to the East Side is now a fact, after so many years, and it would be a small matter to extend it now to Belmead terminal and give those people some accommodation. If the Young Men's Business League and the Chamber of Commerce will bring this about it will be a big thing for the town."

J. J. Powers, acting president of the Chamber of Commerce, in the absence of R. T. Dennis, said:

"I think that transportation should be provided and I think the officers of the Southern Traction company will see the matter in such a light that they will extend their service to give the people the accommodation."

City Engineer George Byars, County Road Superintendent R. J. Windrow and Prof. A. Mitchell, of the Agricultural and Mechanical college, drafting department, are preparing plans showing a reproduction of the suspension bridge, which spans the Brazos river, with a view to determining just what will be needed to rehabilitate the structure. The city engineer and the county superintendent have reproduced the bridge on paper, and each are it now stands, and Professor Mitchell is doing the drafting.

When this is completed, it is probable the draft will be forwarded to the city and county engineers for checking, to let expert bridge men investigate the structure from the draft, to make sure the rebuilding of the bridge is the best possible.

The trees, is offered a rehabilitation of the quick sale at $2,500.

RECOMMENDS USE OF WOOD BLOCKS

PATRONS OF PUBLIC SERVICE CONCERN CONTINUE TO MAKE COMPLAINT.

TRAFFIC HAS WORN BRICK

May Let Franklin Street Sewer Contract—Franklin Street Paving Petition Wins.

Creosoted wooden blocks may replace the present brick flooring on the new street bridge, which spans the Brazos river at the foot of Washington street. The brick flooring has been badly worn in places and the city engineering department has investigated the wooden blocks with a view to installing them on the bridge. City Engineer George Byars has recommended to Street Commissioner Foster that the bridge be refloored and that in the event this is done the wooden blocks be used. Mr. Foster will in the city commission this morning.

Travel on the bridge is concentrated in such a small space that the wheels of vehicles have worn rough places in the brick, causing the forming of bad ruts in the flooring.

Recommend Creosoted Blocks. Engineer Byars said yesterday that the blocks were the best paving for heavy traffic. Besides the installation of the blocks, and the removal of the brick that really lessen the dead weight on the bridge.

When the bridge was first constructed asphalt flooring was laid. This lasted for only two years. When the flooring gave way to the heavy traffic, brick flooring was put in. The bricks have since been worn out and are being replaced by wooden blocks.

Mr. Byars stated that the block could be laid on the present base. He estimated the bridge could be refloored in two weeks.

In the event the city commission decides to undertake the reflooding of the bridge, the county will be asked to bear half the expense. Also in the event this is done, work will probably begin soon in order to complete it to care for the heavy traffic in the fall.

Mr. Byars estimates the cost of reflooding the bridge with creosoted blocks will be about $3,500.

Construction Matters. Contract for the construction of the sewer at Franklin and Second streets will in all probability be let by the city commission this morning. LICENSE IS REVOKED

PENMAN FILES APPEAL FROM DECISION OF COUNTY JUDGE DENTON.

COUNTY JUDGE George N. Denton yesterday revoked the liquor license issued April 19 to R. W. Penman, following the hearing of the case. Penman was granted a license to do business at 113 South Second street. The license had almost ten months to run. Notice of appeal from the decision of the court was given.

The place at 113 South Second was closed by injunction secured by County Attorney John McNamara some days ago in the Nineteenth District Court.

To avoid a car shortage in the fall and winter, officials of the Sunset Central lines are now mailing out to patrons and other rail line circular letters bearing on the handling of cars. The importance of such co-operation is emphasized by reference to the congested condition and shortage that has marked the season of past years.

Warning Letter. The letter reads as follows: "It shall be the aim of the Sunset Central lines during the coming season to so handle the traffic entrusted to them that congestions will not occur, and to so handle their equipment that shippers may be assured of an adequate supply of cars. With this in view, heavy additions have been made in both motive power and cars and our facilities have been extended to meet the increased demands. The benefits of these additional facilities may be greatly minimized, if not entirely nullified, through a failure to supplement them with proper handling of cars, a matter which vitally concerns both the public and the railroads.

The shipper or consignee is rare who is not familiar with the phase of car detention at loading or unloading points and who does not realize that excessive delay to cars while in his service directly affects the supply with consequent damage to others who may be short of cars.

The interchange and proper selection of cars for loading with respect to the route they are to take and its condition, the "house routing" of the car is emphasized as of utmost importance to their motive power when received at the destination. It is shown that traffic conditions are such that the interchange of equipment between railroads varies, with the result that excessive delay to cars while in his service directly affects the supply with consequent damage to others who may be short of cars.

To avoid this condition, the following instructions have been issued: 1. Placing orders for cars on the basis of the actual need for cars, giving full information of cars desired and destination.

2. Giving as much advance notice as possible of your requirements for cars, so that they can be placed on hand. Hupp & Co., phone 649.

3. SAY—Where you have a car, say to your shipper, "I have a car for you." This will help to keep your car out of the hands of others who may be short of cars.

4. If you have a car, say to your shipper, "I have a car for you." This will help to keep your car out of the hands of others who may be short of cars.

5. If you have a car, say to your shipper, "I have a car for you." This will help to keep your car out of the hands of others who may be short of cars.

6. If you have a car, say to your shipper, "I have a car for you." This will help to keep your car out of the hands of others who may be short of cars.
